

Dr. Marc Harrigan is a board-certified family physician with 20 years of clinical practice experience. He received his bachelor's degree in biology from Brown University and his medical degree from the University of Virginia School of Medicine. As a passionate, caring physician, Dr. Harrigan believes that a trusting and honest relationship between doctor and patient is the core of family medicine, and it is his goal to provide quality and comprehensive healthcare to all of his patients.

Dr. Harrigan is a devoted husband and father of two boys. He is a volunteer coach at Northside Youth Organization, serves on several non-profit boards and is actively involved in the Atlanta Metro community. In 2011, Dr. Harrigan became a distinguished graduate of Leadership Atlanta. Additional outside interests include fitness, travel, golf and spending time with his family and friends.